

Anandapur Förbiddēn Libatiōns

Shérpa Fuël

To bravë thë frigid climates, endurë thë thin mountain air, and keep their fires burning, it is said that this concoction was the Shérpa's secret weapon.
 * Bourbon, Splash of Pineapple Juice, Dash of Coconut Cream *

Jadē Dragon

Somé say Dragōns arë myth ~ oþers claim they wære from a bygone time.
 This drink encapsulates dreams and reality.
 * Vodka, Melon Liqueur, Apple Sake, Shimmering Sour *

Yéti Navel

This sweet frozen treat has a back end bite that serves as a warning:
 Do not plan on seeing a Yéti navel and live to tell about it.
 * Vodka Schnapps, Rum, Mango, Spicy Ginger Syrup *

Basé Camp

Népal basé camp sits at 5,364 metres, 17,598 ft. The air and snow are crisp and clean. This drink fashioned after its namesake is the same.
 * Gin, Pear Nectar, Fresh Lemon Juice, Splash of Soda *

Népalese Nectar

With mystic ingredients from far off lands, this nectar was banned at Népalese festivals due to its intoxicating sweetness and subtle burn.
 * Tequila, Orange Liqueur, Anchö Chile Liqueur, Sour, Spices *
 Served as Watermelon or Mango with Lime Spiced Rum

Heed this warning weary explorers: If you are reading this, it means you have laid your eyes upon the forbidden libations. Please understand that this is meant as a template of warning, not consumption. However, if you dare to try please keep this menu secret and please consume responsibly. These libations are forbidden, and should be consumed with extreme caution!

Anjum Bhayal